Dear Mr. Chiba

On 28. September we have received the ordered ELP Laser turntable and we are very happy. Inside the Encyclopedia of our project we write an article about Laser turntables (history from the past to the present day). It's possible that you can allow us to publish this picture (only for use inside our encyclopedia)?:

<http://www.elpj.com/images/goldlt-1200px2.jpg>

Note: we will create a citation about the picture (copyright information) like this example below:

<http://de.publicdomainproject.org/index.php/Datei:Ean0794881735228.jpg>

Article:

<http://de.publicdomainproject.org/index.php/Laserplattenspieler>

Many thanks for your great help.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Flisch,

Thanks for your information.

We so happy that your Encyclopedia shall report our ELP Laser Turntable.

It is OK with you to use the picture.

There are some incorrect information in it.

(1) We discontinued Standard Models, but build "New Standard Model" below.

LT-1STD 7", 10", 12" US$7,150 / 5,000Euro

LT-2STD 7", 10", 12" US$8,580 / 6,000Euro

The appearance is no change. Also Upgrade-Option is no change

(2) We increased unit price of "High-End Model", because Japanese Yen getting higher and higher against US Dollar and Euro.

LT-1LNP US$14,000 / 10,500Euro to US$15,400 / 11,550Euro

LT-1XNP US$17,600 / 13,200Euro to US$19,360 / 14,520Euro

LT-2XNP US$19,100 / 14,330Euro to US$21,010 / 15,760Euro

Questions to you
How many circulation?
When is our ELP Laser Turntable in your Encyclopedia ready publicly?
Is it possible for you to send me one copy as soon as published?

Best Regards,
Sanju Chiba, President

Dear Mr. Chiba

We've updated the price information and upload the new picture:

<http://de.publicdomainproject.org/index.php/Laserplattenspieler>

If you can give us a permission to publish all images or information about ELP- Laserturntable we can publish more informations about ELP and your products. We can create an article about other products like ELP Ad De-Clicker etc.

Best regards, Carl

Dear Mr. Flisch,

Thank you very much for your strong attention to our ELP Laser Turntable (LT).
Yes. Please publish LT, except ELP De-Clicker which is still under development.

Best Regards,
Chiba, ELP
